

Orville Wright, who was so badly; on a trial here at Fort Myer, has about recovered his health. He is on his way to Paris to meet his brother, who has been amusing the French with his aeroplane experiments, and who has inciplane experiments, and who has inci- Elections, and passed by the Senate. dentally taken about all the prizes.

Senator Dillingham, of Vermont, late Senator Proctor on Dec. 21, 1896, and has been hanging fire since the 54th Congress. The resolution proposes that "From and after March 4, 1909, the term of the President and Vice President and Vice President shall be six years, and that no person while holding office of Chief Executive shall be eligible for re-electory. The propose of the Congress of the Government at Washington for the Electoral College and the formalities for the selection of a President and Vice President are coming to a head the election of United States wide. He feels well, and nearly everybody clse around him feels well below the proposed of the Government at Washington the Electoral College and the formalities for the selection of a President and Vice President are coming to the formalities for the selection of the Government at Washington the Electoral College and the formalities for the selection of United States when the Electoral College and the formalities for the selection of the Government at Washington the formalities for the selection of United States when the first and Vice President are coming the formalities for the selection of United States with the formalities for the selection of United States around him feels well below the formalities for the selection of United States around him feels well below the formalities for the selection of United States around him feels well below the formalities for the selection of the formalities for the mittee on the Judiciary.

"Ratones" is the polite way to say it, but plain "rats" is right good Eng-lish. And the plainer English of it is that rats are doing a vast deal of harm in the District of Columbia, and some measure has to be taken to get rid of the pesis. The Superintendent of Street Cleaning has issued an edict to this ef-fect. He says that rats do more harm to the District property than fire. He says the French trap is one good way to catch them, but quite as good a way is to saturate pieces of sponge with Nobody on earth has ever found just persimmon is good for. If you They get first place under the Washista persimmon is good for. If you let the puckery things get frozen and stay frozen for a month or two they sometimes make delicious cating; that is, if the pucker is all frozen out of them. If it isn't, then you have to let them freeze for a month longer. The prople of the South have a kind of corn pone called "persimmon bread" which is really quite good, and then there was once made in the South as and they proceed to throw up new intended both beer and bread made of summons. At the banquets given him in the South he had both along with heir concomitants—"possum and sweet where, and what they say they for early in a good imitation of men are giving a good imitation of men are giving a good imitation of men are giving a good imitation of the President will have to sign to his madness, and considered that with a diet of the two he could keep about even on flesh.

They get first place under the Washington of a mont cate line and reach first the ington date line and reach first the length of the country.

Congress, too, is trying to be defiant, but who cares whether Congress is the thing to be defiant, but who cares whether Congress is the stounts. The Congress is the country. They do not propose to surrender tamely, not by a jugful. And so it is that week by week they proceed to throw up new intended the work of the country. They do not propose to surrender tamely, not by a jugful. And so it is that week by week they proceed to throw up new intended the state of the country. They do not propose to surrender tamely, not by a jugful. And so it is that week by week they proceed to throw up new intended the state of the st let the puckery things get frozen and

The case of the United States against the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of Alabama. Powell is under indictment on the charge of assisting a mob in the hang-ing of a negro named Horace Maples, at Huntsville, the specific charge being that, as a member of the bracking party. Powell had deprived Maples of the right to a trial by due process of law. The Circuit Court held that the 14th ase, and declared that it could not be invoked unless the injustice complained of was inflicted by the State or its authorities. The Supreme Court's deci-sion affirmed the decision of the lower

The United States Attorney in San Francisco has been authorized to insti-tule suit against the Truckee River and General Electric Company and the Cal-Kornia-Nevada Electric Power Co pany and other parties interested, Power Comthe Attorney-General of the United States, on the request of the Secretary of the Interior. The action is being taken to acquire land at the outlet of Lake Tahoe, found to be necessary in connection with the Truckee-Carson project in Nevada of the United States eclamation Service.

The storage of water in Lake Taho at the outlet of the lake. There was a suggestion the other day that as Representative "Charles," Land, and a war was started upon thing about it. But he did it with great due to the started upon thin immediately for that action. The construction of $7,320,111.

The Indian appropriation bill was related upon thin immediately for that action. The construction of $7,320,111.

The Indian appropriation of $7,320,111.

The Indian appr

Feb. 10, 1909, at 1 o'clock, has been smashed up when his aeroplane broke designated as the time for counting the on a trial here at Fort Myer, has about electoral vote in the House of Repre-

The men who are being elected this Senator Dillingham, of Vermont, caused a tremor of excitement to pass over the Senate when he introduced a resolution to amend the Constitution, making the term of office for the Presiown political futures till the middle sequent demonstration in the service. dent six years.

This measure was introduced by the late Senator Proctor on Dec. 21, 1896, for longer terms than any other offion."

Cause he has gotten such a nice prize that Washington generally estimates as that Washington generally estimates as ulations of colleagues or prospective at the President's Cabinet table.

. . .

Keeping Up With the Band.

One almost loses breath keeping up with the procession of events these days of a Washington Winter. The Capitol is surely making history every 24 hours, and the volume of epochmaking material every seven days really becomes quite imposing. And as usual the White House is leaving the Capitol far behind, altho 500 legislators in Senate and House are trying to imprint deep dents upon the scroll of time. Then, there are the Presidential messages issued almost daily to the intrenched statesmen on Capitol Hill. They get first place under the Washington, date line and reach first the eye of the country.

Congress, too, is trying to be defiant, Congress, too, is trying to be defiant, and the country of the country.

Congress, too, is trying to be defiant, the congress of the country of the country of the country.

Congress, too, is trying to be defiant, the congress of the country of the country of the country of the country.

Congress, too, is trying to be defiant, the congress of the country of the countr Keeping Up With the Band.

executive and indicial bill providing for two innings, one that was not of the on Under Secretary of State at $10,000 pitchfork character and one that was. a year, a Fourth Assistant Secretary of All the time he was explaining how he All the time he was explaining how he was not mixed up improperly in efforts to purchase valuable timber lands in Oregon at $2.50 an acre, notwithstanding the President's contentions to the contrary. And then Senator Bacon, of Georgia, took up a lot of time arguing that the Senate could demand informating longer than anybody else ever served in that office does not please that the Senate could demand information of Cabinet officers directly, whether the president wanted it given or not the president wanted it given or not the president wanted it given or not be grew up with the negroe, and has spend his life among them as one of the race.

And in that connection there is an United States in invor of Powell, on a President for his Secret Service mea-writ of error bringing the case from the United States Circuit Court for the sage, it was tabled suddenly, before the United States Circuit Court for the sage, it was tabled suddenly, because some one stated that it would cost $68,deeves when it wo all over and the emphatic vote to lay the motion upon the table had been recorded. But some men are now asking how it was ever estimated that the printing would cost $68,000. There were only about 30 pages of the Congressional Record covering the eight hours of debate proces. ing the rebuke. Representative Loud-enslager, an officer of the Republicar Congressional Committee, who has had large experience in having millions of campaign documents printed, states that he can have 2,000,000 copies of these same proceedings of the House printed at a cost not to exceed $5,000. And members of Congress are laughing anew about that as showing how an years, absurd statement can go unquestioned Com in the House of Representatives.

It is difficult to turn to any particu-The storage of water in the Truckee-is an essential feature of the Truckee-is an essential feature of the Truckee-Carson project, which has been con-structed under the reclamation act, and siructed under the reclamation of more which involves the irrigation of more which involves the irrigation of more than 100,000 acres of land.

The United States has for the last such than 100,000 acres of land.

The United States has for the last such than 100,000 acres of land.

The United States has for the last such than 100,000 acres of land.

The United States has for the last such than 100,000 acres of land.

The United States has for the last such than 100,000 acres of land.

The United States has for the last such than 100,000 acres of land.

The United States has for the last such than 100,000 acres of land. six years been negotiating with the ing the ramins from aboard ships of the Capital on business. He is Record-parties who own or control the tract war. If the President had done it grading Secretary of the U. S. Marine Solually, without making any announce There was a suggestion the other day thing about it. But he did it with great a General Staff, but he must have some legislation from Congress to accomplish this. Of course, in its present contrary mood Congress has no idea in plish this. the world of giving him that desired legislation at this session, and probably will not enact it at all. But the Presiery Board, which is another name for dent has secured a Commission, com-posed of several popular men, in whom the general public has confidence when it comes to Navy matters—such men as ex-Secretary of the Navy Paul Morton; Mr. Justice Moody, also an ex-Secretary of the Navy; Rear-Admiral Robley D. Evans, Rear-Admiral A. T. Ma-han and others like them. He reasons that the people will suspect that Congress is not doing what it ought to do when the recommendations of such a Board as that are not heeded.

They are at it again hammer and tongs, just when it was hoped peace had been restored and there would be a reign of quiet for awhile. The Presi-

Senatorial Elections.

Just when the returns are rolling in from the Electoral College and the ulations of colleagues or prospective colleagues. This is the week when many of the State Legislatures ballot for Senator, even the a number of States have already held their party in his madness, and considered that with a diet of the two he could keep about even on flesh.

A Government bond issue of $500. 600,000, the proceeds from which are to be used for construction work on the Panama Canal, is proposed in a bill introduced in the Senate by Mr. Hopkins, of Illinois, a member of the Senate Committee on Inter-Oceanic Canals.

The bill raises the limit of the amount of bends that may be issued in aid of the construction of the canal from $135,000,000 to $500,000,000. The bill was referred to the Committee on Inter-Oceanic Canals.

After eight years a Junction City, Kan, man, John D. Baldwin by name, has got from Congress $80 fer a horse which was killed by a fragment of a shell at Fort Rifey in 1200. The aninen dragged thru seven cities.

Pressing as all this work is upon the said, has his salary sent up to him which was killed by a fragment of a shell at Fort Rifley in 1990. The animal was struck by a fragment of a shell fired from a gun belonging to Siege Battery O. 7th Art., while at target practice.

Senator Knox, who is slated to be Secretary of State under President Secretary of State under President Taft, is getting ready for a big work evidently, for his friends have introduced an amendment to the legislative, described and the providing for two innings, one that was not of the Presidentally Dulany has an interest-things.

Incidentally Dulany has an interesting history. He is dark-skinned, but might pass for a white man. He himthem. They point with pride to the reforms which Secretary Wilson has introduced into his Department, and ask that he be retained.

Somebody Fooled.

The House was not quite so lavish of like Everybody around the White House reforms which Secretary Wilson has its time in anti-Roosevelt talk, but it had its little fling also.

Somebody Fooled.

Everybody around the White House was not quite so lavish of likes Dulany, who happens to be very expert with the razor. He keeps the President's shaving tools in a little leather portmanteau, which he drags out from under the sofa every after Robert Powell, involving the question whether the 14th emendment can be interesting incident. When a resolution was brought in from the Printing fiveked in the United States courts to printed negros against lynching, was brought in from the Printing Committee to print 2,000,000 copies of the proceedings of the House the day that a rebuke was administered to the The chair is certify adapted for shaving. The President emerges from his office of the proceedings of the Business of the President emerges from his office. when he has closed his forencen's la when he has closed his forenced a lasome one stated that it would cost $68,some of the purpose of explanation of the pullary shaves him. The President talks volubly. He is always restless, but Dulany shaves away without apparent concern, and has never been known to nick the Presidential skin.
The President follows. Some of the the President follows. Some of the dating that he would comb and under the House leaders were laughing in their comb the President's hair two or three comb the President's hair who had

VETERANS IN THE CITY.

A. B. Chase, 3d Mass. Cav., Lowell. Mass. Comrade Chase is one of six brothers who served in the army. One was killed at Jackson and another died in the hospital. Comrade Chase has been selling planes in Texas for many Comrade Rowland, Co. A. 54th Pa.

Clearwater, Fia., for the last 26 years, is in the city on business, en route from Philadelphia to his home in the land of lasting Summer. He naturally gave The National Tribune a call. He is almost helpless from the many wounds he received in battle, Comrade Dr. James M. McGee, diers' League.

Indebtedness in England

CONGRESS.

Report of Proceedings From Day to Day.

Senate

Monday, Jan. 18 .- By a vote of 37 to 27 the Senate overruled the Commit-tee on Appropriations, and fixed the salary of the Speaker at $15,000, instead of the proposed $20,000.

Senator Bailey spoke vigorously against any increase. The amendment was favored by Senators Elkins, Bourne and Depew.
Senator Rayner introduced a rese lution calling on the Attorney-General for information as to whether the Pres-

General debate on the pension appro-priation bill was concluded, and the consideration of the bill for amend-

The House passed a number of miscellaneous bills, including one to ex-tend the provisions of the Cary act to New Mexico and Arizona. This act provides for the reclamation of arid Dolly lands. Representative Sherman, of New York, introduced a resolution taking he measure authorizing the use of th Pension Office for the inaugural ball out of the hands of the District Committee and making it immediate busi-ness in the House. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Rules.

A message from the President was read recommending that he be authorized to declare Feb. 12 next, the centennial of Abraham Lincoln's birth, a National holiday.
At 5:03 the House adjourned.

Sennte.

Jan. 19.-The Senate increased the compensation of the President to $100,000 a year, inclusive of all traveling expenses. The salary of the Vice President ent and Speaker was fixed at $15,000 After debate the resolution of Senator Rayner, calling on the Attorney General for information concerning certain libel suits, was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Many private pension bills were

The House passed the pension appropriation bill and the urgent deficiency appropriation bill, and took up the consideration of the nay, appropriation bill.

A committee of five was appointed to determine what action should be taken in regard to the speech by Rep-resentative Willett, of New York, de-nouncing President Roosevelt. A message from the President, recommending an investigation of conditions in Liberia, was read.
At 6:17 o'clock the House adjourned

Senate.

Jan. 20.—Senator Frazier, of Ten-nessee, spoke on the Brownsville case and discussed the race question at some Senator Foraker endeavored to have a time for a vote on the pending bills agreed upon, but, failing, gave notice that on Monday he should move their Senator Flint offered a resolution, in structing the Committee on Appropria-tions to investigate the subject of the alleged use by Army and Navy Officers of Government vehicles for private pur-Consideration of the legislative ap propriation bill was communed, but no action was taken on any further proposed increase of salary.

Four treaties were ratified, the most important being an extradition convention with Honduras, the last refuge of fugitives from justice,

House. cut, from membership in that body. Considerable headway was made with the naval appropriation bill, all the pro-visions for the local Navy Yard going thru without amendment.

At 5:17 p. m. the House adjourned.

three hours the salaries of the District of Columbia Judiciary were raised.

Senator Dick's resolution to proclaim a holiday in honor of the Lincoln cantenary anniversary on Feb. 12 led to a prolonged debate, which resulted in the measure being laid on the table.

The Johnsons came in Mis. Fatters of gave some famous dancing parties for her children, but no "grown-ups" took part. Then the Grants came in and pretty Nellie Grant had many children's parties there with dancing for them, and a "grown-up" dance for herself and went the control of Items of $1,200 in the urgency de ficiency bill for the purchase of auto-mobiles for Mr. Taft were stricken out by the Appropriations Committee. Senator Warren's bill to regulate exminations for promotion in the Medical Corps of the Army was passed. The Senate adjourned at 5:45 o'clock. House.

Committee of W ttce of Whoie discussed naval House committee tabled prohibition

House committee tabled bill to pre vent officials from owning stock in nunicipal corporations.

Representative Tawney criticised acthod of making estimates for appro House committee approved resolution calling for investigation of fire es-capes in District. House adjourned at 4:55.

Sennte.

Jan. 22.—The legislative appropria-tion bill was finished, and Mr. Hale cave notice he would call up the urgent deficiency appropriation bill Monday. By resolution Lincoln's birthday an-niversary, Feb. 12, was declared to be a special holiday, and $50,000 was appropriated for a survey of "The Lincoln Way," a proposed memorial highway pile. from Washington to Gettysburg. In executive session a message was received from the President transmitting the reply of the Secretary of the Treasury regarding expenditures from the $3,000,000 war eracrgency fund. The ontents of the report will not be di-The President sent to both Hous Commission, with his hearty indorse nent of its recommendations. The Senate adjourned until next Monday.

The House passed the naval appropriation bill, with the provisions for iwo new battleships and other ships of limits.

"drawing rooms," which, of course, was not in the White House, that "The General retires at 9, and 1 usually precede him." war unchanged, the opponents of a greater Navy being utterly routed. The only vital provision stricken out was that restoring the marines to duty veit realization.

WHITE HOUSE DANCES.

Dolly Madison Danced, but Most of Them Didn't-The East Room Rich in History-Scenes of Beauty and Informal Jollity.

Dolly Madison was a dear. She oved all bright and beautiful things, and she made sunlight wherever she went, so "they say." She was a bit of a fiirt, it is true, but she was so adroit about it, and so adorable that her ad-mirers were legion, and no one could claim advantage over the other, so it vasn't so very awful.

Dear old Abigail Adams, the Purita first Mistress of the White House and the second "First Lady" in the land, was as serious minded as her sad colfor information as to whether the President had ordered suits brought against certain newspapers for criminal libel. It went over.

House.

Representative Willett, of New York, denounced President Roosevelt in a speech on the floor of the House.

General debate on the pension appropriation bill was concluded, and the consideration of the bill for amendof her sons began being "private secre-tary" to Ministers abroad when he was just entering his teens, and a boy with a mind like that wouldn't care to trip the light fantastic, you know. But Dolly danced herself, and so she was quite willing to have dancing wome about her, and she did. When Jefferson was President, he rather frowned on such things, but "Pretty Dolly Madison," the wife of his Secretary of State, had things pretty much her own way, and when she wanted a dancing party she had it. Stately indeed were the minuets "grandmamma danced" in the White House. Magnificent were the grand marches, but that was about the extent of it. There was no romping extent of R. There was no romping through a two step, no whirling through waltzes, no round up in "Barn Dances," in Dolly's day, or any other until after the war period.

(Copyright, 1908, by Poch Bros.) RS. ROOSEVELT AND MISS ETHEL

Mrs. James K. Polk, who was considered handsome, and who had castiron manners and thought in straight lines with "prunes and prisms," puck-lines, with "prunes and prisms," puckered mouth and a severity of manner that repetiled everybody, was shocked beyond measure when a young relative of hers suggested that the East room was just the place for a dance.

"Would you dance in the President's House?" she frigidly asked the presuming young woman, and she promptly wilted. It is recorded that when the Prince of Wales, now King Edward, was here in Buchanan's time, he thought the White House quite prelines, with "prunes and prisms," puck-The House unanimously voted to drop thought the White House quite pre-eerge L. Lilley, Governor of Connectithat "the East room would be a jolly good place to take a turn or two in. But he had his trouble for his pain Not even for a Prince Royal could the traditions of the White House be broken.

All the days of the Lincolns were sad ones, in the White House, and there were no young people to dance, so, as always, there were just "recep-tions" and "levees" without end. When Jan. 21.—After considering the legis-lative, executive and judicial bill for three hours the salaries of the District the Johnsons came in Mrs. Patterson her children, but no "grown-ups" took part. Then the Grants came in and pretty Nellie Grant had many children's just before she married and went away to unhappiness which had been foreign to her before that. The Ar-thurs had some children's parties, too, but the Cievelands had nothing but supid jams called "receptions." They would were something awful, those receptions were. Clothes were torn off of fee? spurs of the foreign contingent and medals of all kinds got tangled up in filmy laces and were torn off. The floors of the parlors leaked the parlors leaked the parl the women, tails of coats gave way in the melce, shoulderstraps, swords, Mrs. Robert James McKee gave "German" in the White House, wh her father was President, and the people of the country just "riz right up in rath" at the i-d-e-e-a of profaning the White House in this manner, indeedy, just like that.

No one ever had the temerity to suggest another dence in the White House until the Roosevelts came to their own. "Princess Alice" had her the'r own. "Princess Alice" had her coming out ball in the White House, and it is one of the things to remember. One of the beautiful beads on memory's rosary. Nothing more beau-tiful was ever seen in the historic old

That is, until this Winter. Six dances at the White House is the schedule. Six glorious evenings in the big white and gold East Room, with the Marine Band to play for you. Why, a graven image would certainly get up when there are fully 200 pretty girls and as many handsome Army and Navy the report of the National Conservation ighters in full aniform, and a pretty Commission, with his hearty indorse, good sprinkling of other men in evening clothes, and matrons in not much clothes to speak of—well, if you please, Fairvland simply isn't in it. Mrs. Washington, Martha, you know, announced to these who frequented her greater Navy being utterly routed. The only vital provision stricken out was that restoring the marines to duty aboard ship.

Think of that, will you?

The fortifications appropriation bill was reported to the House, carrying an appropriation of $7,920,111.

The Indian appropriation bill was reported to the House.

At 4:46 the House adjourned.

The Lincoln Boulevard.

Think of that, will you?

And then gaze on this: "Mrs. Roose-vit requests the pleasure of the company of Mrs. Blank' on Friday evening, Jan. 22, at 10 o'clock. Dancing."

You see, you are not supposed to put in an appearance at the White House until an hour after the first President of the United States has gone to bed.

But you go, Oh, yes, indeed! You would go at 10 o'clock in the morning or at midnight, if that precious bit of pasteboard came with your name on it you know that is a nice way of telling you that right soon the lights will go you that right soon the lights will go out, for these—"Revels now are ended. These our actors,

As I foretold you, were all spirits, and
Are melted into air, into thin air;
"We are such stuff as dreams are made on.'

are made on."

Indeed, it is no fiction, for those flitting forms, gowned in soft blue and shadowy pink, delicate green and snow-white satin, slik and lace, flashing with jewels, decked in pearls and surrounded by "roses red and violets blue," were so quaint of attire and so tree of formality that they seemed as insubstantial as a dream.

free of formality that they seemed as insubstantial as a dream.

Mrs. Roosevelt stands alone, except attended by two Military Aids, in the center of the Blue Parlor, where she receives the guests as they enter. Refreshments are served in the State dining room. The whole of the great house is aglow with light, but it is in the East Room, where tragedy and triumphs, wees and glory have centered since Abigail Adams hung her washing there to dry, or shivered there in its cavernous and chilling gloom while statesmen and warriors discussed while statesmen and warriors discussed the tangles of National Government of the people, by the people, for the peo-ple, under flaring tallow dips. Shades of the mighty! How much history that great room has seen! But no shadows lurk there: they couldn't under the dancing crystals of the chandellers, ablaze with the hidden electric bulbs. You see pretty faces, fairy figures and stalwart men in uniforms, in bravery of foreign re-galias, in medals, sashes and aguilettes, and you see as in a vision the brides have plighted troth there, but you shut mind and heart to the crueler pictures of Presidents sent untimely to heir rest by assassins' hands. Three of them have laid in state under that great center glow of light. Miss Ethel, in white satin with some Miss Ethel, in white satin with some crystal trimming down the front and back of the clinging directoire gown, danced—like a girl in her first season. A young girl who has just turned her 17th year, and who sees all the world at her feet. A blithe, wholesome, happy girl, who has grown up like a flower and whom care seems for from py girl, who has grown up like a flow-er and whom care seems far from. Not a single minute did the Marine Band pause—polka, schottische, waltz, just as fast as the players could turn their music the dancing went on. There we many belies and beaux of other dr/s there, and they danced, too, just as mady as the younger ones—a turn with this gallant, a swing with that one, half down the long room with one partner, and finished it with another; that was the way the daughter of the White House danced.

And the President danced a measure with his daughter. are with his daughter.

If any President before Roosevelt as danced in the White House it is with several of the pretty girls, and danced with the same energy he does everything else, and his smiling face as he kept time to the tunes showed his delight.

Mrs. Roosevelt did not dance. shook hands most graciously with all who came, and again as they went; she had a pleasant word for each and a smile, but she contented herself with watching the joy of her daughter in the dance in the dance.

And this is but one of the delightfully informal evenings at the White House when some 200 are asked to gather for dancing. It ended with the barn dance. Can you imagine it? It is a rollicking, mirth-provoking dance, and you have almost got to be young and graceful to do it right, and trains are out of place, so the girls who wore them picked them up in their hands, and from beneath lacetrimmed, silken petticoats small whitetrimmed, sliken petticoats small white-shod feet twinkled in and out in the delicious abandon of the barn dance. Twice, thrice, it was played over befor the final crash of closing its seductive

And this in the wonderful East Room. Indeed, these are nights to remem-ber of the White House.

OUR FREE CONGRESS.

on Tariff Revision.

Campbell Lefors, Tekoa, Wash., favors a revision with a lower tariff on lumber, coal and wood pulp, but approach sugar very carefully, since Washington is a sugar-beet country. The duty on lead should be left as it is, as that is an important Washington indus-try. The Coeur d'Alene mines are a great market for all of the eastern Washington farmers. They should be

Owen T. Wright, 14th Ind., For Dodge, Kan., says that the Republican platform promises a revision, and we must have revision. Owing to high must have revision. Owing to high freights coal is $7.50 a ton at Dodge City. The duties on coal and lumber should be reduced, and reciprocity will help us. Is there any security that if we take the duty off lumber Canada would not put an export duty on the same, as Brazil did with regard to coffilmy laces and were torn off. The of 4,000 different articles there must floors of the parlors looked the next be many changes which should be morning after as though there might made. Coffee, fiber and rubber should have been a Donny-brook fair held be protected, and if they are there will have to be new ships built to keep up better when the Harrisons came in. with the industries developed. with the industries developed.

> J. H. Eby. North Robinson, O., wants basis, with the reduction of duty where the it will benefit the consumer without Yes, destroying protection. There should be no duties on wool, lumber, hides and leather.

J. M. Puckett, Bardstown, Ky., say: that Congress should make a prompt readjustment of the tariff, so that business will not suffer from its tardine William Doner, Waymart, Pa., wants the tariff taken off lumber for the bene-fit of people who build small homes.

H. C. Neff, Hiawatha, Kan., says that he volunteered the same day that Fort Sumter was fired on, and is still standgraven image would certainly get up ing for the best interests of the country and gyrate under such inspiration, but try. Eumber, pulp and coal might be try. Humber, pulp and coal might be put on the free list, but it is better to make haste very slowly in revising the tariff. Let well enough alone. He has been doing business for 67 years, and these are the best times for 90 per cent of the people that he has known. This is the best country in the world, and let us do the best we

> S. H. Murdock, 40th Mass., Brock ton, Mass., is opposed to a revision. Everyone is doing well; no change is

M.to and up. THE ALLEN MFO. CO. 1538 Allen Bidg. Tulvio.

A UNION SHIP.

Patriot Craft of Rare Attractiveness. S. M. Greenbaum, 39th Ill., Chicago, Ill., and now of the Indiana Transportation Company, sends the description of a new vessel which will be lanched on Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22. It will be a companion to the steamship Theodore Roosevelt, and will have a block of wood from each of the 48 States of the Union in a handsome design in the main cabin. The vessel will be of steel and have 46 staterooms, unless the Territory of New Mexico shall be given the name of Lincoln and admitted to Statehood, in which case there will be 47. Each of these will be named after a State, and on the panels between will be photographs of all the Governors in office at the time the boat is put in service next May. The vessel will be named the United States. vessel will be named the United States, and display the Star Spangled Banner in red, white and blue electric lights and also an immense shield. All thru the cabin will be pictures and tablets giving the history of the country. Small brass tablets will bear short sentences and terse paragraphs from our great men, and one of the tablets will have Lincoln's Gettysburg speech. The Unit-ed States is 215 feet long and 40-foot beam, and will be fitted for service on the ocean as well as the Lakes, so that if there is communication established by the way of the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico she can enter upon that

The Pennsylvania Pennion Bill.

John J. Nichols, 304 Euclid avenue, Pittsburg, Pa., objects to the provision in the Pennsylvania pension bill limit-ing pensions to those who served 90 ing pensions to those who served 99 days in the army and navy between April 12, 1861, and April 9, 1865. If this provision stands it will cut out the boys who enlisted in the latter part of January and first of February, 1865, and who served from six to 19 months, doing their duty, but did not reach the limit of 90 days prior to April 2, 1865.

H. H. Lowell, Penfield, Pa., registers his kick against the Pennsylvania pension bill. He is in favor of each State's pensioning her soldiers, without regard to their present residence. It seems to be the only way to give all a square

New York Pension Bill.

Charles I. Curtiss, 59th N. Y., West-Charles I. Curtiss, 59th N. Y., Westfield, Mass., says, with reference to the New York pension bill, that when medwere asked to enlist nobody inquired whether they had lived three years in the country. Many of these were Irish and Germans, who had but recently immigrated, and some of them have gone back to their Fatheriand to laftheir bones to rest in their native self.
He himself is shut out of the benefits of the law, because he went to live with his son in Massachusetts. New York had the great benefit of men from other States, who came in to fill up the States quote and these men should He himself is shut out of the benefit the State's quota, and these men she

The 189th Pa. William Bratten, 285 North 20th street, East Orange, N. J., wants to hear from any of his old comrades of the 189th Pa.

FREE TO ASTHMA

We want every sufferer from Asthma to write us to-day for a free trial of our wonderful New Method for curing Asthms. We expecially desire those cases of long standing which have tried all the various kinds of inhalers, douches and patent smokes without number and without relief. We know we can cure them. We want to and are willing to prove it absolutely free of cost. Many thousands have accepted this opportunity and are now cure. There is no reason why any one, old or young, rich or poor, should continue to suffer from Asthma after reading this marvelous offer.

PHONTIER ASTHMA CO.

PRONTIER ASTRIA CO. Ningara and Hudson Streets. BUFFALO, N. Y. Room 18-D.

SPECTACLE CO. Box 171, St. Louis, No.

The Centennial Anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln will occur next year, and it is now time for Grand Army Posts, Woman's Relief Corps and all other particule organizations and societies, which may have been formed having similar ends in view, to begin preparations for the purpose of fitly celebrating that important event.

Osborn H. Oldroyd, whose residence is now in the same house in which Lincoln died at Washington, D. C., has prepared an appropriate service to commemorate that occasion.

S. H. Murdock, 46th Mass., Brockton, Mass., is opposed to a revision. Everyone is doing well; no change is needed.

J. G. Robbins, Le Seur Center, Minn., says: Let well enough alone until the Panama Canal is completed and paid for.

George Kaufman, New England, W. Va., says that there should be no revision of the tariff. Everything is good enough.

D. W. Darbee, Colden, N. Y., would admit free all things that we cannot produce, and put a high protective tariff on all that we can. He believes in America for Americans.